Melissa McCaw
MPA 2014
Director of Finance
Town of East Hartford, CT

"UConn’s School of Public Policy provided me with high-quality academic experience complemented with real-world and practical applications that have served me throughout all levels of my career in Public and Non-Profit Higher Education Finance. There is no doubt that UConn’s SPP program is contributing to the successes of thousands of alumni who are making a difference in the public and non-profit sectors across the region and the nation."

Phillip Hyman
MPA 2022
Leadership Associate (HR Consultation & Job Classification)
Connecticut Department of Administrative Services

"I was impressed by the diverse set of courses they offered and the far-reaching impact many of their alumni have had at organizations within both the public and private sectors. I truly am grateful for my experience with the School of Public Policy and I am certain that the time I spent within the program will prove to be an asset to my career within the civil service."

Jason Jakubowski
MPA 2001
President and CEO
Connecticut Foodshare

"I was a UConn undergrad and wasn’t sure exactly what I wanted to do with my degree; but I did know that whatever it was, it would somehow involve public service. I was immediately impressed with the way this program taught administrative skills through the lens of representative democracy. The core skills – such as budgeting, statistics, HR management, leadership training truly made me the professional – and, quite frankly, the person – I am today."
